

M&A Source is an exclusive group of Intermediaries who have received education and training which is invaluable to business owners looking to sell, recapitalize, or grow through acquisition. Intermediaries who have earned the prestigious Merger and Acquisition Master Intermediary (“M&AMI”) designation have proven to M&A Source that they have the skill necessary to handle marketing, negotiations, and complex details involved with the sale or purchase of mid cap businesses. The M&AMI designation should give potential clients a level of trust and confidence that a recognized group of peer intermediaries has deemed the holder an expert in the art of valuing, packaging, marketing, negotiating, and closing more difficult and complex transaction.
